

NOTICE REGARDING ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

In response to the USA Patriot Act, Trading.com will verify personal information provided on your account application. When opening a trading account with Trading.com, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, social security number or documentation to support your identity such as a current passport, driver's license or other documents deemed appropriate. Trading.com reserves the right to request additional documentation and upon further review may deny opening an account if documentation is determined to be insufficient.